

BUILDING VIBRANT COMMUNITIES

Bahá'ís and their friends around the world are engaged in a process of community-building at the local level with activities such as:

CHILDREN'S CLASSES

Helping children apply spiritual principles such as love, unity, and justice to their own lives and in their relationships with family, friends, and in their community.

JUNIOR YOUTH GROUPS

Assisting young people in developing their inherent potentialities, strengthening their character, and enhancing their spiritual understanding while contributing to the transformation of their neighborhood and society.

STUDY CIRCLES

Creating a space where youth and adults can come together to explore the practical application of the Bahá'í teachings to their individual and collective lives, enhancing the skills and qualities necessary for a life of service.

DEVOTIONAL GATHERINGS

Uniting with others in prayer, awakening spiritual susceptibilities, and shaping a pattern of life distinguished for its heavenly attributes and selfless service to humankind.

"Service to humanity is service to God."
